

D.L. Smith

D.L. Smith, 57, of South McCord Road, Holland, also known as David, died Nov. 26 in Mercy Hospital after an apparent heart attack. He was an army veteran of the Korean War and had been employed 12 years at the Champion Spark Plug Co., retiring in 1981. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Classie Abram; sons, Jerry Lee and D.L., Jr.; brothers, Nelson, Orange, and the Rev. Robert P. Wormely, Jessie Feggins, and Walter Readers; sisters, Mrs. Willie Mae Clark, Mrs. Elgie Harvey, Mrs. Oscie Coleman, Mrs. Johnnie Taylor, and Mrs. Betty Covington. Services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday in Indiana Avenue Baptist Church. The body will be in the Sherrill-Harden Mortuary after 1 p.m. tomorrow, with wake services to follow at 7.