Retired LOF Executive Headed Export Sales

Edward M. Everhard, 77, retired Libbey-Owens-Ford Co. vice president and export sales executive, died Thursday in the Edgewood Nursing Home, where he had been a patient for a week. He lived on Cranston Drive.

Mr. Everhard retired in 1970 as vice president-export sales, president of the LOF Export Co., a subsidiary, and chairman of the board of Bogardus Wilson Ltd., of Vancouver, B.C., another subsidiary.

His 44-year career with the glass company began in 1926 when he was hired as a sales trainee in LOF's Charleston, W. Va., window glass factory.

After 15 years in sales and moving through management ranks, he became LOF general manager of distributor sales in 1942. Eleven years later, he succeeded George P. MacNichol, Jr., as vice president in charge of sales.

Mr. Everhard was placed in charge of export sales in 1959, when he became the first president of the LOF Export Co.

He was born in Massillon, O., and attended the University of Cincinnati and Ohio State University before beginning his career with the glass company.

He was past president of the Wednesday Nooners Luncheon Club, past board member of the Inverness Club, and a member of the Toledo Club and Rotary Club.

Surviving are his wife, Ruth; stepdaughter, Mrs. Mary Woodrum; stepson, John Harvey, brother, Thomas, and sister, Mrs. Florence Linehan.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Maumee. There will be no visitation.

The family requests that any tributes be in the form of contributions to the Toledo Society for the Blind or the St. Paul's Episcopal Church Endowment Fund.
