

THURSDAY, JANUARY 4,

Henry D. Pahl

Milling Industry Executive Long In Toledo Area

Henry D. Pahl, 61, a milling industry executive, died yesterday while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Bingham, Tacoma, Wash. Mr. Pahl lived at 85 Eagle Point Dr., Rossford.

Mr. Pahl was a vice president of Nebraska Consolidated Mills Co., Omaha, and a former president of Mennel Milling Co., Fostoria.

He was born in Clinton, Ia., and lived in the Toledo area 17 years. He began his career with General Mills in 1922, rising in cost accounting posts, sales and sales management until 1944, when he resigned as district manager in Detroit to join Mennel in Toledo as general sales manager.

He was elected a director of the company in September, 1945, and became vice president and general manager in 1947. He was president from 1949 to 1958 when he joined Nebraska Consolidated. Mennel maintained offices here until 1959 when they were moved to Fostoria where the plant is located. Mr. Pahl went into semi-retirement in 1960.

He was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Maumee. He had been active in yachting and sailing.

Also surviving are his wife, Helen L.; son, Henry D., Jr., Cambridge, Mass.; brother, Paul, Waterloo, Ia., and two grandsons.

Services and burial will be Saturday in Clinton. The family requests that any tributes be in the form of contributions to the Northwestern Ohio Heart Association.