

Henry Swartzbaugh

Former Executive Of Manufacturing Firm

Henry B. (Ted) Swartzbaugh, 75, former executive of the Swartzbaugh Manufacturing Co., died Friday in his home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Mr. Swartzbaugh was vice president of the appliance manufacturing firm. He moved to Florida about 10 years ago, after the company moved to Tennessee.

He was the quarterback of the 1918 and 1919 Scott High School football teams, which attained national recognition. He later played football at Dartmouth College.

Surviving are his brother, Richard, of Toledo, and sister, Mrs. Frances Caple, of Rossford. Memorial services will be held later in Fort Lauderdale.
