

Career Ends

NORTH A. WRIGHT

Glass executive dies

North A. Wright

Glass Firm Publicity Chief Was Aviator

North A. Wright, public relations director of the Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Co., died unexpectedly last night in his home, 321 East Second St., Perrysburg, after he collapsed of a heart attack. He was 49.

Born in Atchison, Kas., Mr. Wright had attended the University of Kansas and enlisted in the marines during World War I. He was commissioned a pilot and was engaged in commercial flying and sales work before coming to the Toledo firm in 1933.

Public Relations Director

Mr. Wright was associated with George P. MacNichol, Jr., vice president in charge of sales at L-O-F. Since the war, Mr. Wright had been director of the public relations department having general direction of advertising, sales, promotion, press relations and design departments.

During the war he served as a director of the Producers' Council with headquarters in Washington and was on liaison duty between L-O-F and various governmental agencies in expediting war materials and in developing new war products. He was a member of Carranor Hunt and Polo Club in Perrysburg.

Mr. Wright is survived by his wife, Marjorie, and sisters, Mrs. W. C. Oberlin and Mrs. G. K. Charles, both of Atchison, Kas.

Services Tomorrow

The body is in the Witzler Funeral Home, Perrysburg, today and will be taken to the Wright residence tomorrow where the Rev. Malcolm Ward, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Maumee, will officiate at services at 2 p. m. Burial will be in Atchison.

Pallbearers will be Harold Boeschenstein, Horace Y. Barnes, Mr. MacNichol, E. J. Marshall, Jr., E. M. Everhard, Earl Aiken, Wilfred Hibbert and Franklyn R. Hawkins.