

Wallace S. Bigley

Wallace S. Bigley, age 75, of Providence St., Whitehouse, died Sunday in Toledo Hospital. He was born August 15, 1915 in Monclova to Charles Bigley and Laura Peeps. He married Helen Cronk August 20, 1938. She survives along with 2 sons, Glenn of Monclova and Thomas of Jackson, MS; daughters, Bonnie Smith and Nancy Moore both of Toledo, Carol Rhoades of Whitehouse and Kathy Hertzfeld of Waterville; 21 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren; brother, Paul of Oregon, Lewis of Toledo and Charles of Grand Rapids; sister Phylis Waggoner.

He was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Maumee, also a member of Wakemance Masonic Lodge and the Order of Eastern Stars of Waterville, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite at Toledo Valley, Zenobia Shrine, Royal Arch Mason, Progressive Fisherman Assoc. of Whitehouse, 40 year member of the United Trainmans Union, a Royal Member of Idlers and Loafers.

Mr. Bigley worked as a conductor, brakeman and engineer in a Railroad career that expanded 31 years with York Central, Penn Central and Conrail, retiring in 1977. His years after retirement he spent as a crossing guard for the Anthony Wayne Schools Whitehouse Elementary.

Services will be Wednesday at 11 AM in the church with the Reverend Christopher Luedde officiating. Visitation will be Monday after 7 PM and Tuesday after 2 PM in the Peinert Funeral Home, Whitehouse Chapel where 7:30 PM Monday there will be Masonic Services. Memorial donations can be give to the church or the Shriners Burns Unit.