

Edith B. Spangler

Mrs. Edith B. Spangler, wife of Ernest D. Spangler, president and co-founder of the Spangler Candy Co., Bryan, O., died yesterday at home, 232 East Wayne St., Maumee. She was 67.

Mrs. Spangler was born in Philadelphia. She lived in Maumee 20 years. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Maumee, and of the church's Altar Guild and Women's Auxiliary.

Also surviving are sons, Charles, Norman and Albert, of Maumee, and Frank, Bryan; brother, Carl Boyer, Philadelphia, and six grandchildren.

Services will be tomorrow at 2 p. in St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Burial will be in Fort Meigs Cemetery. The body is in the Maison Mortuary, Maumee.

Fallbearers will be John Van Rensselaar, Henry Stechschulte, George Burnette, Harlan and Theodore Spangler, cousins, and Neil Levenson.